

Privacy Statement

1. Introduction

This Privacy Statement relates to the National Board for Safeguarding Children in the Catholic Church in Ireland's National Board use of any personal information you provide to it including through www.safeguarding.ie ("our Site"). We reserve the right to change this Privacy Statement from time to time, and a new privacy statement will be uploaded onto our Site.

2. About the National Board

Coimirce trading as the National Board is a registered company in Ireland. We are the controller responsible for the personal data you share with us.

3. Our Contact Details

If you have any questions about this data protection statement, including any request to exercise your legal rights, our contact details are as follows
NBSCCCI, New House, St. Patricks' College Maynooth
Tel 003531 5053124
Email: admin@safeguarding.ie

4. Data Protection Officer

We have appointed a Data Protection Officer (DPO) who can be contacted by email at DPO@safeguarding.ie or by post at NBSCCCI, New House, St. Patricks' College Maynooth.

5. What information do we collect

We collect information about you when you book a training event, register for newsletter through our site or when you engage in correspondence with us.

The information we collect includes some or all of the following:

- Name
- Address
- Phone number
- Email address
- Any information within correspondence you send us
- Church body you are associated with

6. How will we use the information collected about you

We will only process information that is necessary for the purpose for which it has been collected. If you do not provide us with the information we require, this may prevent you from fully availing of our services. We may use the personal information we gather for all or any of the following purposes;

Purpose	Description	Lawful basis for processing
Booking training events through the website	When an individual books training events through the website information is collected in order to fulfil that booking. These details are then stored on a "Cloud" based sever in a secure database which only the National Board and staff from a charity called Enclude (for IT Support) have access to. For the purposes of retaining a record of payment, maintaining training records and to contact the individual with relevant communications including future training. Confirmation of payment for events is collected and stored within our systems but we do not have access to or store individuals' financial details.	You have given your explicit consent to the processing.
Head to Heart Programme and other training courses	We collect your information when you participate in and complete training courses such as the Head to Heart Programme. These details are stored on a "Cloud" based sever in a secure database which only the National Board and staff from a charity called Enclude (for IT Support) have access to.	You have given your explicit consent to the processing.
Registering as a trainer, tutor and delivering training	We collect your information when you register as a trainer with us. We will use this information to train you	This processing is based on contract.

	and thereafter to facilitate delivery of training by you. These details are then stored on a “Cloud” based sever in a secure database which only the National Board and staff from a charity called Enclude (for IT Support) have access to.
Registering for our newsletters	Where you visit our website and register to receive our newsletters details are collected in order to provide you with that newsletter. These details are then stored on a “Cloud” based sever in a secure database which only the National Board and staff from a charity called Enclude (for IT Support) have access to.	You have provided explicit consent.
To deal with communication	All written communications are stored on a “Cloud” based sever in a secure database which only the National Board and staff from a charity called Enclude (for IT Support) have access to.	This processing is in our legitimate interest in providing a high standard of service to those who contact us through our website. This processing may also be based on contract where the individual is seeking to enter into some form of contract with us via the written communication.

In addition to the purposes detailed above, we may also process your information in the course of operating our business in our legitimate interest for purposes including complying with legal and regulatory requirements to which we are subject, maintaining the security and integrity of our IT systems and defending legal claims.

7. Sensitive personal information

We sometimes process sensitive personal information, such as information concerning your religious beliefs when you provide it to us. Where we do so, we will obtain your explicit consent. This consent can be withdrawn at any time by using the contact details of the DPO as set out above.

8. Your information and third parties service providers

We may share your personal information with third party service providers that perform services and functions on our behalf such as accountants, IT service providers, printers and other business advisors and providers of security and administrative services.

We may share your personal information with An Gardaí or other government bodies or agencies where required to do so by law.

9. Storage periods

We will retain your personal information for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes for which we collect it, including for the purposes of satisfying any legal, accounting or reporting requirements.

10. Transfers outside the European Economic Area

We may transfer your personal data outside of the European Economic Area. These countries do not always afford an equivalent level of privacy protection and in such circumstances we will take specific steps, in accordance with Data Protection Law to protect your personal information.

11. Your rights

You have several rights under Data Protection Law in relation to how we use your personal information. Availing of the following is free of charge;

1. To request a copy of the personal information we hold about you;
2. To rectify any inaccurate personal data we hold about you;
3. Erase personal information we hold about you;
4. A restriction of processing of your personal information;
5. Object to our use of your personal information for our legitimate interest including profiling;
6. Receive your personal information in a structured, commonly used and machine readable format and to have that data transmitted to another data controller;
7. Where the processing is based on consent, the right to withdraw that consent;
8. Object to the use of your personal information for direct marketing at any stage.

These rights are in some circumstances limited by data protection legislation. If you wish to exercise any of these rights please contact us using the contact details as set out above. We will endeavour to respond to your request within one month. If we are unable to deal with your request within one month we may extend this period by a further period of two months and we would explain why.

You also have a right to lodge a complaint to the Office of the Data Protection Commissioner.

In writing: 21 Fitzwilliam Square South, Dublin 2, D02 RD28.

Phone: 00353 (0) 761104800

Website: www.dataprotection.ie

12. Newsletter opt-out

You have the right to opt-out to the receipt of our newsletter at any time. If you do not wish to receive our newsletter please follow this link to unsubscribe <https://www.safeguarding.ie/index.php/unsubscribe-form> or you contact us at the details set out above or follow any unsubscribe link in any email we send you.

13. Review

We will update this data privacy statement from time to time. Any updates will be made available on www.safeguarding.ie and where appropriate notified to you.

THE NATIONAL BOARD FOR SAFEGUARDING CHILDREN
IN THE CATHOLIC CHURCH IN IRELAND

Copyright

© The National Board for Safeguarding
Children in the Catholic Church in Ireland, 2023

The material in this publication is protected by copyright law. Except as may be permitted by law, no part of the material may be reproduced (including by storage in a retrieval system) or transmitted in any form or by any means, adapted, rented or lent without the written permission of the copyright owners.

To seek permission for use or for more information contact admin@safeguarding.ie.